

Web Portal for PV plant access

The IngeRAS™ PV provides access to the PV plant data from any PC with an Internet connection and GPRS modem. Its ease of access facilitates owner, installer or promoter plant control. This software provides information on the PV plant status and production, either in list and graphic format or through an e-mailed production report. The data recording and storage are made throughout the entire inverter service life.